This is another new opportunity that Asia should seize to make win-win progress.

The changes occurring in economy have been accompanied by changes in the ownership of many companies. The three most common forms of business ownership are sole proprietorship, partnership, and corporation. Each form of ownership has a characteristic internal structure, legal status, size, and field to which it is best suited. Each has key advantages and disadvantages and offers employees a distinctive working environment with its own risks and rewards. Today, we will focus on sole proprietorship.
